

It is essential that the rules and regulations regarding media ownership not be relaxed or loosened in any manner. In order for the free press of this country to stay free, there must be strong safeguards against any practice that would threaten to create a monopolistic ownership across different media types (or even within them). Thank you.